

Party on the Patio

There's something so relaxing about enjoying time with your friends and family outside on a nice day for drinks and a good meal. Following are some great TOP spots around town to do just that...

Campus Pub

With Live Music Friday nights on the patio and Live Team Trivia on Monday and Saturday nights, 12 TVs, a Pool Table, a Foosball Table, 3 Dart Boards, a Jammin' Jukebox, Corn Hole, great Happy Hour prices and tons of well-lit parking, what more could a person ask for? Maybe a Beer 'n Bacon Burger, the pub burger topped with two slices of crispy bacon and a healthy portion of homemade beer cheese. It is out of this world!

Waller Shopping Center
393 Waller Avenue
231-0957

Cheapside

Tucked into the historic heart of Downtown Lexington, Cheapside Bar and Grill has long been a local favorite hangout. With their newly renovated patio, Cheapside just got a little hotter. Cheapside serves brunch on Saturdays and Sundays, from 11:30 am to 3:30 pm. Cheapside's menu offers dishes from all over, from Western cowboy favorites to seashore specialties. Cheapside aims to suit virtually any taste with a vast offering of food, drinks, ambiance and live music.

131 Cheapside
254-0046
cheapsidebarandgrill.com

DeVassa

Lexington's premier tapas bar dishes out an exotic South American feel and jam-packed events calendar to keep things spicy. The cozy patio faces Triangle Park, offering an ideal see-and-be-seen locale. Enjoying drinks and sharing tapas on DeVassa's patio provides a great spot to enjoy Downtown Lexington. Wednesdays through Saturdays, DeVassa's entertainment comes live from the hottest bands to hit the Lexington scene. From hip hop to black light parties, DeVassa definitely offers a little something for virtually any ear. After dark, there is a spacious dance floor for shaking those hips.

401 West Main Street
455-9139 | devassa.net

Furlong's

Thoroughbred horse racing fans know that a furlong is 1/8 of a mile, but local restaurant mavens know that Furlong's serves great Louisiana food and a great time. Jambalaya, beignets and shrimp etoufee are just a sampling of the succulent southwest Louisiana cuisine selections found at this distinctive eatery. Visit Furlong's quaint outdoor patio, which seats 30 and features a pergola on the side that has an authentic New Orleans café feel, Monday through Thursday 4 pm-10 pm and until 11 pm on Friday and Saturday and 11-3 for Sunday brunch.

735 East Main Street
266-9000
furlongs.com

Hacienda

Featuring authentic Mexican cuisine surrounded by colorful décor and murals, guests are instantly transported straight to the heart of Mexico. A fun, friendly atmosphere keeps the party on the patio festive with comfortable seating at Mi Pequena Hacienda. A 2-for-1 margarita special is sure to please. As a special treat, a live Mariachi band plays on Sunday evenings.

3501 Lansdowne Dr.
245-4679

Hall's on the River

For 42 years, Hall's on the River has been providing guests with one of the most beautiful views in the Bluegrass. Hall's patio offers both open-air and covered seating and can accommodate large groups for graduation celebrations, wedding dinners, business functions or gathering with friends. Historical and surrounded by nature, Hall's is a Kentucky tradition that is great for entertaining or just relaxing, day or night. Romantic lighting adds a warm, comfortable ambiance. Kids can peek over the deck or venture down by Howard's Creek, connecting to the Kentucky River just across the road.

1225 Athens Boonesboro Rd., Winchester
527-6620 | hallsontheriver.com

Harry's

Harry's patio is famous for its relaxed, uniquely Kentucky atmosphere. From their much-loved mini burgers to their wide selection of spirits, Harry's serves up exceptional food, drinks, service and atmosphere. Its three great locations make Harry's a hoppin' hot spot during lunch, happy hour, dinner and late night. Harry's covered patio, pictured at Palomar, makes it perfect for sunny summer days or rainy nights. For groups who want to get together, get down and get great service, Harry's is an ideal choice.

3735 Palomar Center Drive
223-1900 | bluegrasshospitality.com

Old Chicago Pizza

From made-from-scratch pizzas, stromboli and calzones to steaks, seafood and burgers, Old Chicago Pizza offers so much more than just pizza. Open late with a full menu available until 2 am Monday through Saturday and Midnight on Sunday, they have over 20 HDTVs with NTN satellite sports. Join their World Beer Tour for free to record your sampling Old Chicago's 110 different beers from around the world. Happy Hour is Monday through Friday, 3-6 pm and nightly 10 pm to close. They feature a lunch pizza bar everyday, and kids build their own pizza every Tuesday night.

1924 Pavilion Way (Hamburg)
977-4640 | oldchicago.com

Riptide on the River

Riptide on the River is the summertime place to be with tons of fun along with fresh fish flown in every week to serve some of the best seafood in Lexington. With four patio decks totaling over 8,000 square feet overlooking the Kentucky River, Riptide's has room to accommodate groups. A tiki bar, beach volleyball court and corn hole games keep guests entertained between wining and dining in a picturesque locale.

9097 Old Richmond Road
263-3286
riptideontheriver.com

The Pub

The Pub Lexington is a high energy authentic British Pub featuring outdoor dining and live music. Their draught beer offerings are the finest to be found and their menu boasts only the best pub fare from around the British Empire. Their centerpiece hand-crafted bar offers a wide range of English draught, cask conditioned beers as well as Scottish, Irish and domestic selections. Cheers Mate!

3750 Mall Road (Fayette Mall)
971-2748

